Bible Character “Heads Up”

Utilize these cards to play a quick round of Bible character “Heads Up.” Without looking at it, have a student place a card on his or her forehead with the character facing toward the remainder of the small group.

The group should give the player clues about what Bible character is on the card, and the player will guess until they guess the character correctly! Once the character is guessed correctly, the player can share the fun fact from the back of the card with the group!

While God was speaking to Moses through a burning bush, Moses gave the Lord five excuses for why he could not deliver the people of Israel. Not surprisingly, God countered all five!

Noah died at the age of 950, 350 years after the flood ended.

The miracles Jesus performed all pointed to the power of salvation through the cross. Water into wine, raising the dead, healing the sick . . . every single one!

How did Jonah get out of the belly of the giant fish? You might be surprised to hear that God commanded the fish to vomit Jonah out.

Josiah was just 8 years old when he became king! Can you imagine becoming a king at that age? He ruled in Jerusalem for 31 years.

The Samaritan woman was intentionally avoiding others by visiting the well at the time of day she did, but Jesus' timing was intentional to meet her exactly where she was both physically and spiritually.

Snake bite! In Acts 28, Paul was bitten by a viper. Everyone expected him to die, but he did not perish.
