

Session 1 Quiz

Question 1 of 5

What term means "a set of presuppositions, values, or beliefs which guide or control the interpretation of texts"?

- Hermeneutics
- Exegesis
- Eisegesis
- Biblical literacy

Question 2 of 5

True or False: Studying the Bible should be easy.

- True
- False

Question 3 of 5

What is eisegesis?

Eisegesis occurs when the person studying the Bible brings their own principle to the text, assigning meaning that isn't there.

Eisegesis is the execution of studying the Bible.

Eisegesis means you have a Bible in your own language and are growing in your understanding of it.

Question 4 of 5

True or False: The Bible is primarily about humanity and how we should live.

True

False

Question 5 of 5

Which of the following is NOT a faulty assumption about studying God's Word?

Studying the Bible is a quick process.

Studying the Bible is a difficult process.

The Bible is a roadmap for life.

The Bible is for everyone.

All contact with Scripture is helpful.