

Hey Parents!

We are so excited that you have decided to lead your teen son or daughter through this challenging but important study! We realize the topics in this book are difficult, in many ways confusing, and hard to talk about. But this study can help you have conversations with your kids that shapes their hearts for the rest of their lives. You don't have to be an expert on these topics; just be willing to have discussions with your kids and turn to God's Word for the answers. He is truth and He will guide you in all truth! We just wanted to provide some tools to help you as you walk through this journey together with your teen.

For This Study You Will Need:

Think Biblically study book for yourself.

Think Biblically study book for your teen.

Think Biblically video sessions (available at lifeway.com/thinkbiblically)

How To Utilize Your Materials Together:

NOTICE

There are tips on how to lead teens through this study on page 6 in the Think Biblically book. These tips are helpful for you as you lead but also for your teen as he or she participates in the study.

WATCH

Watch the weekly video with your teen.

Utilize the questions found in the Group Discussion section of each week located in the Think Biblically book.

The Leader Guide beginning on page 93 is also be a helpful tool for you as you lead your teen each week.

A note about the video content: These videos are intended to speak directly to your teen and the station of life they are in currently. As you know, no two teens are alike. Steer your discussion to where your teen is in his or her walk with the Lord. Trust God and listen for His voice. He will give you discernment as you lead.

STUDY

Don't Forget to Pray

Work through your individual Think Biblically study books throughout the week. It will be unproductive to lead this study without doing the four days of personal study. Don't nag, but gently encourage your teen to stay on track. We realize their lives are busy and many teens are way too overcommitted to things, but this study is best when students work through it daily and are not cramming multiple days together just to get it done.

CONNECT

Plan time each day to work on personal study to keep each other accountable.

Be open with your teen throughout the week about things you learn or have questions about. Provide a safe place for him or her to do the same.

Don't stress! Make a plan and follow through. If you need to go at your own pace that's fine. Just don't give up if the road gets rough. The destination is worth the journey!
