

THIS IS FRIENDSHIP

God's Very Good Gift of Community

AMANDA MEJIAS
& CORINNE ALLEN

A NOTE TO PARENTS

Since the beginning of Scripture, we see the evidence that community and loving one another is a very good gift given by God. Yet the friendships we want are often difficult. There's drama, frustrations, fake friends, needy friends, and just plain bad friends. So what's the point of it all? Through four biblical foundations, students will discover intentional ways to love their neighbor in response to the way God first loved us. Because after all, that is friendship.

FOUR SESSIONS:

Session 1: Friendship is a Response

Session 2: Friendship Requires Sacrifice

Session 3: Friendship Needs Honesty

Session 4: Friendship Brings Joy
