

TO TALK ABOUT JESUS, TALK LIKE JESUS.

The gift of the gospel is more often received when it's wrapped in love. That's why Preston Perry always shows patience and respect when he presents the gospel. His purpose is to win hearts, not arguments. But this kindness is also coupled with courage—to approach anyone God leads him to and to have tough conversations if necessary. And you can do the same. Through this six-session Bible study, you'll be inspired and equipped with practical, effective ways to boldly share your faith with friends, neighbors, coworkers, and others.
