Your responses to the following are intended to help your group leader grow in his or her ability to guide future group sessions. Answer the following.

1. What did you appreciate most about your group leader?

2. What kinds of activities were most meaningful to you during group sessions? Why?

3. If you could choose only one activity, what would you want to spend more time doing during group sessions (such as pray for one another or share testimonies)? Why?

4. How would you summarize what this study has done to help you in your personal walk with the Lord?

5. What do you sense God has revealed during this study that He wants to do in and through your life in the days ahead?

6. What major adjustments do you sense God is leading you to make in order to join Him in His work?

7. During this study what was your most meaningful experience of God's work or activity in or through your life? Explain what God did.

8. What would you suggest for future groups that would enhance learning and the group experience?

9. What, if anything, would you suggest doing less frequently during the group sessions? Why?
