For every man who's tired of the comfort zone.

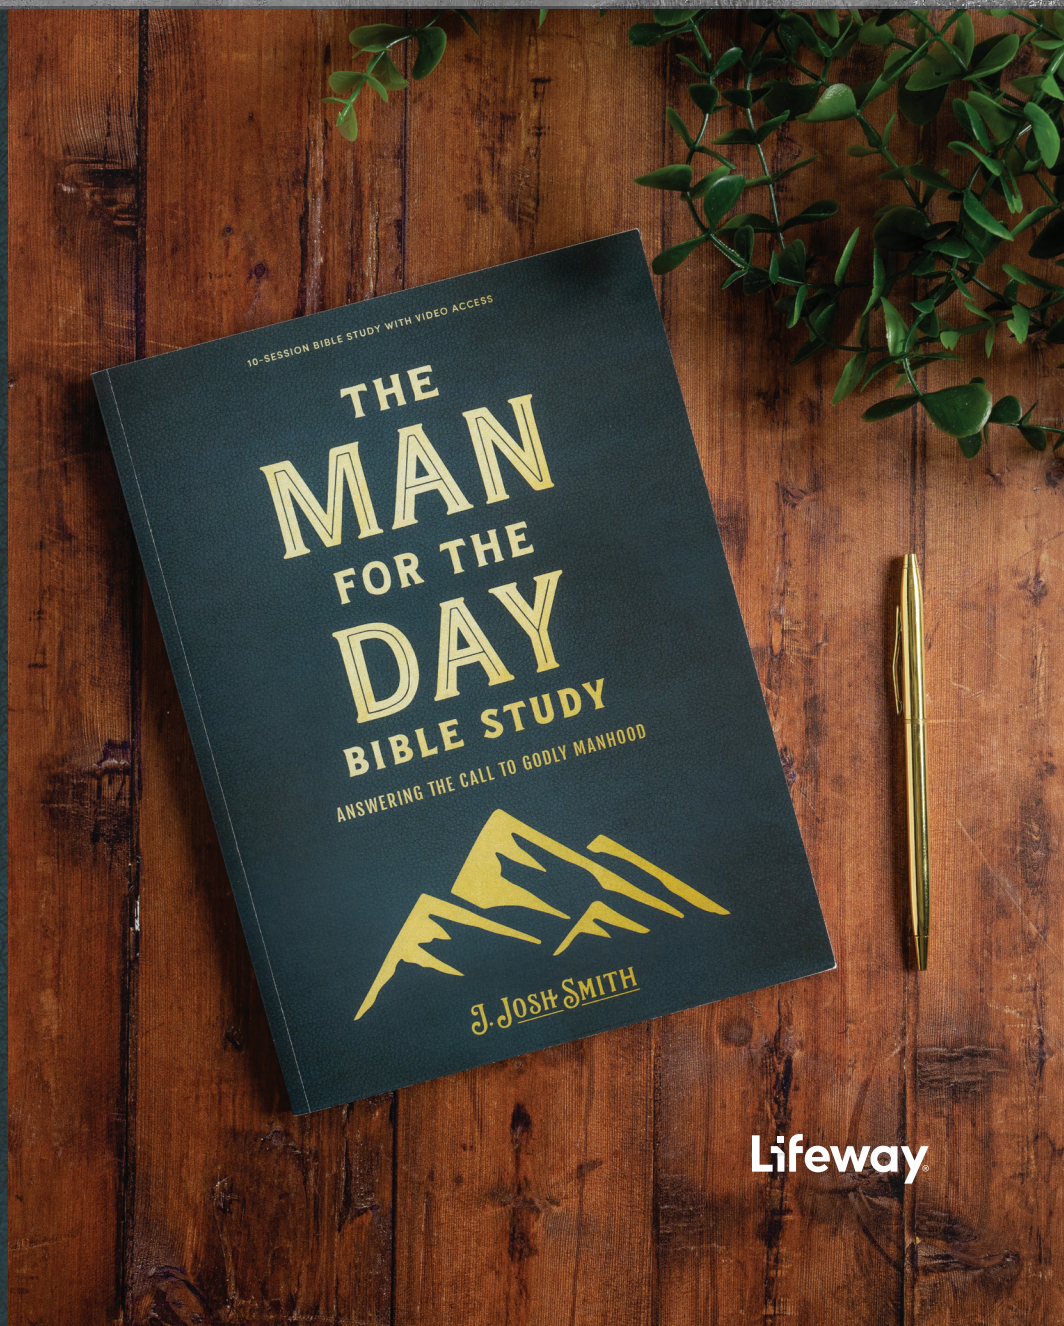

THE MAN FOR THE DAY

Every Christian man is torn between two strong feelings: the desire to step out and do what God has called him to and the fear of actually doing it. This new 10-session study of Elijah will inspire you to take the leap. Join us and see what it means to be God's man in today's culture. Learn to live with purpose and stand for truth, even when it's unpopular. Through daily personal reflection and group discussion, you will cultivate spiritual discipline, emotional honesty, and bold faith. It won't be comfortable, but it might just be incredible.
